

I believe that this is a good first move to draw new hams in, especially those who are interested in HF. This also keeps with tradition in not eliminating the morse code requirement entirely. However, additional HF phone privileges besides 28.300-28.500 should be granted - this slice of 10 meters may not be enough to draw in new hams.